BROWN JOINS DON WOOD FOUNDATION STAFF

The Don Wood Foundation, a private foundation dedicated to the advancement of manufacturing and related education in the region, has formally named Julie Brown as their executive assistant.

Brown brings over 27 years of executive assistant and operations supervisory experience to the foundation. She is an alumna of Purdue Fort Wayne with an Associate Degree in Organizational Leadership and Supervision with a concentration in Office Supervision and a Bachelor's Degree in General Studies with a minor in Psychology. In the past, Brown has supervised and managed offices and brings a wealth of office operation knowledge along with organizational skills.

"We're thrilled to bring Julie's abilities and expertise to our foundation. She has already proven to be an exceptional addition to our team," said Laura Macknick, executive director for the Don Wood Foundation.

The Don Wood Foundation serves to align opportunities between students, community, and industry by growing and strengthening the manufacturing sector in the region. To learn more about the Don Wood Foundation, visit their website at www.DonWoodFoundation.org.
