FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 80/20 Foundation Trust is proud to announce the addition of Steve George to their team as the financial and administration manager.

An alumnus of Purdue Fort Wayne, George brings in over 10 years of experience in higher education financial and operational management with expertise in the areas of accounting and finance, operations, and facilities. George will serve as the point of contact for Foundation operations including financial, human resources, office, and systems management.

"I'm driven to create opportunities for effective and efficient management through education and collaboration and am eager to be an integral part within this organization that will be providing opportunities to develop the future leaders of our workforce," George said.

The 80/20 Foundation Trust serves to align opportunities between students, community, and industry by growing and strengthening the manufacturing sector in Northeast Indiana.
